ARTICLE III. Policy

This church acknowledges Jesus Christ as its head, and places its temporal affairs in the hands of its members, as they shall act from time to time under His guidance. This church believes in the freedom and responsibility of the individual soul, and the right of private judgment. This church holds to the autonomy of the local church and its independence of all ecclesiastical control. It cherishes the fellowship which binds it to other churches in the United Church of Christ and acknowledges its commitment to, and participation in, those voluntary relationships with that body set forth in the Constitution and Bylaws of the United Church adopted July 3, 2017, in Philadelphia.

ARTICLE IV. Doctrine

FAITH - This church recognizes the Bible as its sufficient rule of faith and practice, and holds that living in accordance with the teachings of Jesus Christ is the true test of fellowship. Each member shall have the undisturbed right to interpret the scriptures according to the dictates of conscience under enlightenment of the Holy Spirit. While members of clergy are not required to subscribe to a creed, the following statement of faith is an expression of things most surely believed among us:

“We believe in you, O God, Eternal Spirit, God of our Savior Jesus Christ and our God, and to your deeds we testify:

You call the worlds into being, create persons in your own image, and set before each one the ways of life and death.

You seek in holy love to save all people from aimlessness and sin.

You judge people and nations by your righteous will declared through prophets and apostles.

In Jesus Christ, the man of Nazareth, our crucified and risen Savior, you have come to us and shared our common lot, conquering sin and death and reconciling the world to yourself.

You bestow upon us your Holy Spirit, creating and renewing the church of Jesus Christ, binding in covenant faithful people of all ages, tongues, and races.

You call us into your church to accept the cost and joy of discipleship, to be your servants in the service of others, to proclaim the gospel to all the world and resist the powers of evil, to share in Christ's baptism and eat at his table, to join him in his passion and victory.

You promise to all who trust you forgiveness of sins and fullness of grace, courage in the struggle for justice and peace, your presence in trial and rejoicing, and eternal life in your realm which has no end.” (taken from the UCC Website)

COVENANT – Guided by the Holy Spirit, we covenant with the Lord and with one another, and agree to walk together in the ways of the Lord made known, or to be made known, to us. The mission of the church is to gather as the people of God to worship and proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We strive to carry on His teaching of love through our support and compassion for all people in our community and throughout the world.
